Ceremony of the Best Poster and the Best Oral Presentation Award Program 2023

C. Bochet[1,2], D. Spichiger[2], M. Steinke[3], T. Netscher[4]

[1]Universtiy of Fribourg, [2]Swiss Chemical Society, [3]Metrohm AG, Herisau, [4]DSM-Firmenich AG

Presenters automatically participat in the renowned Best Presentation Award Program. More than CHF 42’000 CHF in total are given to the winners in monetary form, travel grants or free publication opportunities in the Junior Laureates issue of CHIMIA 4/2024.
We like to address our recognition and thank to the Metrohm Foundation and to DSM-Firmenich., that are partnering for the presentation award program for many years.

Best Oral Presentation Award

The prize is given for the two best short presentations of each parallel session. The main criteria is the scientific quality and originality of the research, plus the quality of the presentation.

Prize for the winner of each of the nine, parallel sessions

- Cash contribution of CHF 500
- Travel voucher of CHF 1000 to attend an international conference
- Invitation to present the research in the laureates' issue of CHIMIA. Value CHF 1’200.

Prize for the Runners-up

- Cash contribution of CHF 400.

The prizes are sponsored by Metrohm. Markus Steinke, Executive Vice President Marketing at Metrohm will join us for the ceremony and hand over the prizes.

Best Poster Presentation Award

The prizes are given for the best posters of each parallel session. The main criteria is the scientific quality and originality of the research, plus the quality of the presentation.

Prize for the winner of each of the nine, poster sessions

- Cash contribution of CHF 200
- Travel voucher of CHF 750 to attend an international conference
- Invitation to present the research in the laureates' issue of CHIMIA. Value CHF 1’200.

Prize for the Runners-up

- 1-3x Cash contribution of CHF 200.

The prizes are sponsored by DSM-Firmenich.